

The Almighty Father is I AM

Scriptures unarguably show, “I AM” is The Almighty Father. (Exodus 3:13-14)

According to the ‘Trinity Doctrine’, “The Father is not the Son” and “The Son is not the Father”. Therefore, according to the ‘Trinity Doctrine’, it is not possible for Yahshua to be “I AM” because Yahshua is the Son; Yahshua is not the Father.

The Trinity Diagram

Yahshua says something very important in John 8:24 that all people should heed

“Therefore I said to you that you will die in your sins; for if you do not believe that I am He, you will die in your sins.”

Notice the “He” in this verse is in italics, which means that it was not in the original Greek, but was added by the translators. The “He” in italics was NOT spoken by Yahshua. This added word completely obscures the fact that Yahshua was claiming to be the great “I AM”, The Almighty Father of the Old Testament (Exodus 3:14, John 8:58).

The Greek words translated as “I am” are ‘EGO EIMI’ which is: “I AM”.

John 8:24 is actually as follows,

“Therefore I said to you that you will die in your sins; for if you do not believe that I AM, you will die in your sins.”

What Yahshua tells us is clear and unambiguous, it is not open to more than one interpretation. His message is this, if you do not believe that I AM, you will die in your sins.

According to Yahshua Himself, rightly believing who He is, is essential for salvation.

Yahshua makes it clear that for a person to be saved from sin, they must believe that He is The Almighty Father of Exodus 3:14 manifested in flesh.

Why must this be?

The answer is simple. It is because The Almighty Father, as scripture states, is the only Savior! (Isaiah 43:11; Isaiah 45:21; Hosea 13:4) The Almighty Father is the only one that can save someone from their sins. There is no other Savior!

Therefore, if a person does not believe Yahshua is I AM, The Almighty Father and only Savior, they “will die in their sins”.

Trinitarianism: Think “three” say “one”

Because the Bible so clearly and so often tells us “the LORD is our God, the LORD is one”, those who espouse the Trinity Doctrine will always mechanically say that there is one God.

But no matter how many times they say this, the concept in the minds of those who believe in the Trinity is of “three” divine beings... who are “each fully God”. This amounts to thinking of God as three gods, regardless of any abstract metaphysical statements about their being “one in essence”. In short, Trinitarians are actually thinking of three divine figures even though their lips are saying ‘one God’.

The practical reality is the ‘Trinity Doctrine’ is a polytheistic doctrine. And, even though its adherents have been trained by their denomination to say, “There is one God”, their actions speak much louder than their words, for they worship and pray to “three distinct persons who are each fully god”.

The Almighty Father tells us in Isaiah 43:11
“there is no other Savior but Me.”

The invisible Father of the Old Testament, manifested Himself in flesh as a man in the New Testament. He did this in order to fulfill ‘the Law’ on our behalf and become our sacrifice, substitute, high priest, ‘kinsman redeemer’ and Savior.

Then, on the cross He took ALL of our sins (past, present and future) and put them upon Himself, thereby making us “holy, blameless” and “without a single fault” in His eyes. (Col 1:22)

This is the gospel! This is the Good News!

Teaching The Almighty’s people to worship ‘three persons’ in the Old Testament would have meant death

Many Trinitarians have never examined the Trinity Doctrine for themselves. They do not know its origins or how it came to be. They have accepted this doctrine even though nowhere in the Bible is the teaching of this doctrine found.

What The New Encyclopedia Britannica says about the Trinity Doctrine:

“Neither the word Trinity nor the explicit doctrine appears in the New Testament.” In addition, Yale University professor E. Washburn Hopkins observed: “To Jesus and Paul the doctrine of the trinity was apparently unknown; they say nothing about it.”

Where did the Trinity Doctrine come from?

The Trinity Doctrine evolved under the influence of the Roman Catholic Church. It took over 300 years to formulate the main elements of this doctrine at the Council of Nicea in 325 AD. Ultimately, the Catholic church forced believers to accept the ‘Trinity Doctrine’ or face condemnation, excommunication and worse. It is well documented in history that multitudes of people were tortured and put to death for refusing to accept the Trinity Doctrine. This fact alone should have sounded the alarm in the Christian world concerning this doctrine.

How did Protestants become Trinitarians?

“At the time of the Reformation, the Protestant Church took over the doctrine of the Trinity (from the Catholic church), without serious examination.”
New International Encyclopedia; 1916 Ed.;
Vol. 23; p 47, 477

Most Protestant Trinitarians do not realize that the ‘Trinity Doctrine’ they espouse is a product of the Catholic church.

Both Catholic and Protestant Trinitarians worship and pray to “three distinct persons, each fully God”.

The Catholic Pope Francis told people on January 11, 2015,

“We usually pray to Jesus,” Francis said. “When we pray the Our Father, we pray to the Father. But we don’t pray so much to the Holy Spirit. It is so important to pray to the Holy Spirit.”

Three quotes from well known Protestant websites:

1. "So our one God is present in three persons: the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. This is the doctrine of the Trinity. It is appropriate to worship all three, and we should be careful to ensure that our worship of one person of the Trinity does not overshadow our worship of any other person of the Trinity."
2. "So, in general, pray to the Father; but occasionally, to express their Personhood and your own love for them, telling the Spirit and the Son that you love them and that you would like them to come in fullness is a good thing".
3. "There is only one God, eternally existing in three persons: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, Who are co-equal in their essential nature, attributes, and perfection; and each of Whom is to be honored and worshiped as God".

Please look at the words used in these quotes.

"worship all three" "you love them" "each worshiped"

Does this sound like Biblical monotheism to you?

Both Catholic and Protestant Trinitarians are teaching people to worship and pray to three distinct persons!

This is totally unscriptural for it is polytheism.

Does your Trinitarian church (do you) condone praying to three distinct persons?

Trinitarian churches oppose The Almighty Himself by teaching He is 'three distinct persons'

Because the Bible so clearly and so often tells us "the LORD is our God, the LORD is one", Trinitarians by rote, will always emphatically say that there is one God. However, here is the deception. The Trinitarians one God, is not the singular Almighty of scripture. The Trinitarians god is instead, one being incorporating 'three distinct persons'. But no matter how many times they say this, the concept in the minds of those who believe in the 'Trinity Doctrine' is of three divine beings. This amounts to thinking of The Almighty as three gods, regardless of any abstract metaphysical statements about their being "one in essence," and regardless of the continually repeated statement that the three are one God.

In short, Trinitarians are actually thinking of three divine figures even though their lips are saying 'one God'. The practical reality is that the Trinity Doctrine is a polytheistic doctrine— and even though its adherents have been trained to automatically say, "There is one God", in reality they are picturing and worshipping three distinct persons.

In the Old Testament, a person teaching The Almighty's people to worship 'three distinct persons' would have been put to death

Moses met and spoke with The Almighty many times, twice for periods of 40 days each. Moses climbed Mt. Sinai eight times to meet with The Almighty.

The Almighty says of Moses,

"I speak with him directly, openly, and not in riddles, He sees the form of the LORD."

Numbers 12:8

The Almighty said He speaks with Moses "directly", "openly" and "He sees the form of the LORD", yet Moses never wrote The Almighty is three persons. Moses did write,

Hear, Israel! The LORD is our God, the LORD is one!

What Moses wrote and proclaimed agrees with both the Old and the New testament which tell us there is but one God, the Father. (Malachi 2:10; 1 Corinthians 8:6; Ephesians 4:6)

The Almighty Himself has told us He is One, but never that He is three.

What divides Jewish people from Trinitarianism is whether The Almighty is One (singular), or a composite of 'three persons'. The bedrock of Judaism has always been strict monotheism - the belief that The Almighty is singular. This belief in the one singular Almighty is what distinguished the Jewish people from their neighbors, who during antiquity were polytheistic.

The Jewish people have always safeguarded their monotheism against Trinitarian proselytizing. To them, the Catholic and Protestant 'Trinity Doctrine' is blasphemous, for they believe the 'Trinity god' to be a different god than the singular Almighty God of Scripture.

How can the Jewish people (or any Believer) accept the 'Trinity Doctrine' which tells them The Almighty is comprised of "three distinct persons who are each fully God", when this refutes the very Words of The Almighty Father Himself?

In the Bible, false prophets were people who claimed to speak the Word of God but instead spread false messages and teachings. The true prophet's message always lined up with the Word of God in Scripture, whereas the false prophet's teaching was inconsistent and contrary with what Scripture said.

Any prophet who contradicted what The Almighty had previously revealed in His Word, proved himself to be a false prophet. To protect His people, The Almighty commanded false prophets be put to death.

The Bible says we have one God, the Father

The Apostle Paul tells us not once, but two times that there is one God, the Father. (1 Corinthians 8:6; Ephesians 4:6)

In His word, The Almighty has clearly told us He is a singular One. The Jewish people undeniably understood that The Almighty was the Father and that He was a singular One. They never received any instruction that their singular Almighty was a 'triad of persons', or a 'triune being'.

Trinitarian apologist, Robert M. Bowman, Jr., concedes that even the concept of a triune God is not to be found in the Old Testament:

"All trinitarians agree that the ideas about God expressed in the doctrine of the Trinity are not found directly in the Old Testament."

Christian apologist Don Stewart explains why The Almighty is not understood to be a plurality of persons in the Old Testament:

"The doctrine of the Trinity was not clearly formulated until after the New Testament was written... The doctrine of the Trinity is not plainly revealed in the Old Testament."

Edmund J. Fortman, professor of theology, says that the Old Testament's authors had not even the slightest idea that God was three in one, nor was there even an implication therein:

"The Old Testament tells us nothing explicitly or by necessary implication of a Triune God who is Father, Son and Holy Spirit.... There is no evidence that any sacred writer even suspected the existence of a [Trinity] within the Godhead.... Even to see in the Old Testament suggestions or foreshadowing's or 'veiled signs' of the Trinity of persons is to go beyond the words and intent of the sacred writers."

"Thus, all of the forty-eight times 'Almighty' is used in the Old Testament, it is used with The Almighty Father in mind since this is who its authors and audience understood Him to be based on His own words."

The Bible clearly tells us there is "one God ... the Father. Since we know that Yahshua is God, we know that He is The Almighty Father who was manifested in flesh to be our Savior.

Does your Trinitarian church (do you) believe there is one God, the Father?
