

Letter to the Editor

Most protestants do not know the origins of the 'Trinity Doctrine', nor how it came to be. They have accepted the doctrine even though nowhere in the Bible is this teaching found. Most Protestants are unaware that the 'Trinity Doctrine' they embrace comes directly from the Catholic church.

Most Protestants have accepted and embraced the 'Trinity' solely because it is a 'Doctrine' of their 'Protestant' denomination.

Based on the scriptures in both the Old and New Testaments, the 'Trinitarian' concept is not taught, nor explained by the writers inspired by the Holy Spirit.

It is Biblically incorrect to speak of the Almighty as a 'trinity' or 'persons'. 'Persons', in reference to the Almighty, is not scriptural, nor is there a commandment to worship 'three persons'. This makes the 'Trinity Doctrine' an unscriptural and unsound doctrine.

The 'Trinity Doctrine' should never be associated with Believers who worship in spirit and truth nor should it ever be associated with the Christian faith.

Few protestants know the Trinity Doctrine was established by the Roman Catholic church at the Council of Nicea in 325 A.D. Shortly after, the Catholic church forced believers to accept the 'Trinity Doctrine' or face condemnation, excommunication and worse. It is well documented that multitudes of people were tortured and put to death for refusing to accept the Trinity Doctrine.

And for what reason?

These Believers held on to their belief that The Almighty is a singular One, and not a being composed of three distinct persons. This fact alone should sound the alarm in the Christian world.

During the dark ages, the Catholic church ruled supreme. At this time the Catholic church did not permit the Bible to be printed or read by the common people. All Catholic masses were conducted in Latin, and all matters pertaining to God and the church were dictated by the Catholic church alone.

To question the Catholic church on any matter was punishable by excommunication, torture, and death. During this time, the Roman Catholic church established many unscriptural and false doctrines.

Some of these provably false doctrines are:

The infallibility of the Catholic Church.

The doctrine that Catholic tradition equates to the Bible itself.

The false doctrine of 'The Immaculate conception' which states Mary, the mother of Yahshua Messiah, was born without sin, and lived a sinless life, and is the intercessor between God and man.

The false doctrine of 'The Assumption of Mary' which states Mary did not die, but was instead taken up to Heaven.

The false doctrine of 'Purgatory' which is a place of purification of sins not repented of before dying.

The false doctrine of 'Indulgences', which is the paying of money to the Catholic church to get your loved ones out of purgatory and into Heaven.

The false doctrine of praying to dead saints for assistance with your special needs.

The 'Trinity Doctrine' 325 A.D. which states, The Almighty is not a singular one, but is a being composed "of three distinct persons, each fully God".

Martin Luther – The Protestant Reformation

In 1517, Martin Luther, a Roman Catholic priest and monk, protested against these unbiblical teachings and doctrines of the Catholic church. This 'protest' by Martin Luther was the beginning of what is now referred to as 'The Protestant Reformation'. 'Protestant' originates from the word 'protest'.

Although Martin Luther protested against many of the false doctrines of the Catholic church, he still stood by the Catholic churches false and unscriptural 'Trinity Doctrine'. Due to this, the new 'Protestant church' still retained and taught the same exact 'Doctrine' as the Roman Catholic church.

The New International Encyclopedia states,

“At the time of the Reformation, the Protestant Church took over the doctrine of the Trinity without serious examination.”

It is strangely ironic to hear 'Protestants' of today disparage the Catholic church for its many false doctrines, while being completely unaware that the unscriptural 'Trinity Doctrine' they embrace was taken directly from the Catholic church.

This is why Protestant churches today use the very same verbiage as the Catholic church when teaching the 'Trinity Doctrine' to their followers, praying to, and worshiping 'three distinct persons' and not to the One singular Almighty of Scripture.

It is important to know that attending a 'Protestant' church would be embracing, supporting, and perpetuating the Catholic church's false 'Trinity Doctrine' to yet another generation.

The Bible tells us The Almighty Father manifested Himself in flesh to do for us what we could NEVER do for ourselves. He fulfilled the demands of the Law so that He could be our perfect sacrifice, 'kinsman redeemer' and Savior. On the cross He took ALL of our sins (past, present and future) and put them upon Himself, paying our price, and thereby making us holy, blameless, and without a single fault in His eyes. (Colossians 1:22)

This is the gospel. This IS the Good News.

Salvation is a gift we receive when we call upon Yahshua Messiah, The Almighty Father manifested in flesh. The gift of salvation cannot be earned by our deeds, works, or fruitless self-righteous attempts at keeping the law. We cannot obtain it by being a 'good person' or by attending church.

Ephesians 2:8 tells us,

“God saved you by His grace when you believed, and you can't take credit for this, it is a gift from God. Salvation is not a reward for the good things we have done, so none of us can boast about it.”

We can only receive our salvation as a gift from Yahshua Messiah... 'to us'.

Everyone who calls upon the name of Yahshua will be saved, so call upon Him now, tomorrow is not assured.
