

Trinitarians Repent

Repent means, "To change one's mind"

Many Trinitarians have never examined the Trinity Doctrine for themselves. They do not know its origins or how it came to be. They have accepted this doctrine even though nowhere in the Bible is the teaching of this doctrine found.

What The New Encyclopedia Britannica says about the Trinity Doctrine:

"Neither the word Trinity nor the explicit doctrine appears in the New Testament." In addition, Yale University professor E. Washburn Hopkins observed: "To Jesus and Paul the doctrine of the trinity was apparently unknown; they say nothing about it."

Where did the Trinity Doctrine come from?

The Trinity Doctrine evolved under the influence of the Roman Catholic Church. It took over 300 years to formulate the main elements of this doctrine at the Council of Nicea in 325 AD.

Ultimately, the Catholic church forced believers to accept the 'Trinity Doctrine' or face condemnation, excommunication and worse. It is well documented in history that multitudes of people were tortured and put to death for refusing to accept the Trinity Doctrine. This fact alone should have sounded the alarm in the Christian world concerning this doctrine.

How did Protestants become Trinitarians?

"At the time of the Reformation, the Protestant Church took over the doctrine of the Trinity, without serious examination."

New International Encyclopedia; 1916 Ed.; Vol. 23; p 47, 477

Both Catholic and Protestant Trinitarians teach people to worship and pray to ‘Three Persons’.

The Catholic Pope Francis, told people on January 11, 2015...

“We usually pray to Jesus,” Francis said. “When we pray the Our Father,’ we pray to the Father. But we don’t pray so much to the Holy Spirit. It is so important to pray to the Holy Spirit.”

Here are three quotes from well known Protestant websites:

1. “So our one God is present in three persons: the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. This is the doctrine of the Trinity. It is appropriate to worship all three, and we should be careful to ensure that our worship of one person of the Trinity does not overshadow our worship of any other person of the Trinity.”
2. “So, in general, pray to the Father; but occasionally, to express their Personhood and your own love for them, telling the Spirit and the Son that you love them and that you would like them to come in fullness is a good thing”.
3. “There is only one God, eternally existing in three persons: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, Who are co-equal in their essential nature, attributes, and perfection; and each of Whom is to be honored and worshiped as God”.

Please look at the words used in these quotes.

“worship all three” “you love them” “each worshiped”

Does this sound like Biblical monotheism to you?

Both Catholics and Protestants are teaching people to worship and pray to three separate entities. This is totally unscriptural for it is polytheism.

Does your pastor or church condone praying to three entities?

The Trinity Doctrine is the main reason why Jewish people are not drawn to the Gospel.

The Jewish people were warned continually to stay far away from pagan 'polytheism' by The Almighty Father Himself:

"Hear, O Israel: the LORD our God, the LORD is one!"

Deuteronomy 6:4

The Shema

The Shema is an affirmation of God's singularity, its daily recitation is regarded by the Jewish people as a Biblical commandment.

The first verse of the Shema is considered the most essential declaration of the Jewish faith — the LORD is our God, the LORD is one. The Almighty Father thought the knowledge of His singularity so important He told the Jewish people to teach this to their children daily.

"Therefore impress these My words upon your very heart: bind them as a sign on your hand and let them serve as a symbol on your forehead, and teach them to your children - reciting them when you stay at home and when you are away, when you lie down and when you get up"

Wouldn't you agree The Almighty Father thinks the knowledge of His singularity is important for His people to know?

How can the Jewish people accept the 'Trinity Doctrine' which tells them The Almighty is comprised of 'three' persons when this contradicts the very words of The Almighty Father.

The Jewish people are correct in believing in the 'absolute singularity' of The Almighty, and that same singularity can be proven in the New Testament. It is Biblically incorrect to speak of The Almighty as a 'trinity' or 'triad' of persons. 'Persons', in reference to The Almighty is not in the Bible, it is not scriptural, nor is there a commandment to worship 'three persons'.

This makes the doctrine of the Trinity an unsound and unbiblical doctrine.

The New Testament aligns itself perfectly with the beliefs of the Jewish people who believe The Almighty is singular (really one), as they were taught by The Almighty Father Himself in the Old Testament.

The 'Trinity Doctrine' was never part of the early church. The Almighty Father had taught the Jewish people to be strictly monotheistic, so the early church (made up of Jewish Believers) knew that Yahshua Messiyah was none other than The Almighty Father manifested in flesh.

They knew The Almighty Father had manifested Himself to us in human form, as the Son, just as Isaiah had prophesied.

*For unto us a Child is born,
Unto us a Son is given;
And the government will be upon His shoulder.
And His name will be called Wonderful,
Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father,
Prince of Peace.*

Isaiah 9:6

Isaiah prophesied that the "Son" who was to come would be called "Mighty God" and "Everlasting Father". (Isaiah 9:6)

Yahshua was the prophesied "Son" in His humanity, but He is our Mighty God and Father in His deity.

Does your church teach there is one God, the Father?

Yahshua, The Father Manifested in flesh is our Savior

“God was manifested in the flesh,”

1 Timothy 3:16

Trinitarians say Yahshua is not the Father manifested in flesh.

But the Prophet John (and according to Yahshua, the greatest prophet who ever lived) preached this message:

“Prepare the way for Yahweh” - (Yahweh is The Almighty Father)

John the Baptist. . . Matthew 3:3

We know that John the Baptist is speaking about Yahshua MessiYah!

This is why the apostle Paul called Yahshua...

“our great God and Savior.”

Titus 2:13

This is why the apostle Peter said...

“To those who have obtained like precious faith with us by the righteousness of our God and Savior Jesus Christ”

2 Peter 1:1

This is why Jude said...

To God our Savior, Who alone is wise, Be glory and majesty, Dominion and power, Both now and forever. Amen.

Jude 25

Does your church teach that Yahshua MessiYah is the Father manifested in flesh?

The Bible says the Father is our Savior

Trinitarian's teach that it is the 'Second Person' of the three person trinity that is the Savior and not the Father Himself.

Scripture clearly tell us there is no Savior but The Almighty Father Himself! (Isaiah 43:11; Isaiah 45:21; Hosea 13:4)

The Bible tells us The Almighty Father alone is our Savior.

I, I am Yahweh, and there is no other Savior but Me. Isaiah 43:11

*And you shall know no God but me;
For there is no savior besides Me.* Hosea 13:4

The Father tells us plainly He is the only Savior!

Does your church teach that The Almighty Father is the only Savior?

The Bible says we have one God, the Father

yet for us there is but one God, the Father, from whom are all things and we exist for Him; and one Lord, Jesus Christ, by whom are all things, and we exist through Him.

1 Corinthians 8:6

one God and Father of all,
who is above all, and through all, and in you all.*
Ephesians 4:5-6

The Apostle Thomas said to the risen MessiYah...

"My Lord and my God!"

John 20:28

Are we to believe that when Thomas proclaimed Yahshua to be "God" he was not proclaiming Yahshua to be The Almighty Father?

Trinitarians say The Almighty is a being comprised of 'Three Persons', thus refuting the words of The Almighty Father Himself.

Ephesians 4:6 tells us there is "one God and Father of all". Since we know that Yahshua is God, we know that He is The Almighty Father who was manifested in flesh to be our Savior.

The Bible clearly tells us there is one God ... the Father!

Does your church teach there is one God, the Father?

Yahshua proclaims He is "I AM"

In the Old Testament YAH-weh, The Almighty Father, declares He is "I AM". (Exodus 3:14) In the New Testament, YAH-shua (YAH is Salvation) declares that He is "I AM"... identifying Himself as The Almighty Father of the Old Testament who has come manifested in flesh!

In the Gospel of John, John writes of eight instances where Yahshua refers to Himself as "I AM". In the book of Revelation, John writes of seven instances where Yahshua refers to Himself as "I AM".

When Yahshua states that He is "I AM", He is proclaiming that He is The Almighty Father manifested in flesh!

Yahshua makes an explicit declaration in John 8:24

Yahshua says something very important in John 8:24 that all people should heed.

“Therefore I said to you that you will die in your sins; for if you do not believe that I am (He), you will die in your sins.”

The (He) in this verse is in italics, which means that it was not in the original Greek, but was added by the translators. The (He) in italics was NOT spoken by Yahshua. This added word completely obscures the fact that Yahshua was proclaiming He was the “I AM” of the Old Testament (Exodus 3:14, John 8:58). The Greek words translated as “I am” are ‘EGO EIMI’ which is: “I AM”.

John 8:24 is actually as follows,

“Therefore I said to you that you will die in your sins; for if you do not believe that I AM, you will die in your sins.”

What Yahshua tells us is clear and unambiguous, it is not open to more than one interpretation. His message is this, if you do not believe that I AM you will die in your sins.

Yahshua makes it clear that for a person to be saved from sin, they must believe that He is The Almighty Father of Exodus 3:14. Why must a person believe that Yahshua is The Almighty Father of Exodus 3:14?

The answer is simple. It is because The Almighty Father, as scripture states, is the only Savior! He is the only one that can save someone from their sins. Therefore, if a person does not believe Yahshua MessiYah is ‘I AM’, The Almighty Father and only Savior, they will die in their sins.

Thirty four verses later in John 8:58, Yahshua emphatically repeats His declaration that He is I AM, The Almighty Father manifested in flesh.

“Most assuredly, I say to you, before Abraham was, I AM.”

Today, people engage in intellectual debates about who the Father is. Is our Savior the Father, is our Savior a second person in the Trinity Doctrine? But Yahshua is having none of it, He speaks clearly and truthfully to those who will listen. He is I AM and no debating or intellectualizing will change that. No man, tradition or denomination will change that.

Philip learns from Yahshua that the Father is not a different and distinct person from Himself

In John 14:8-9, Philip asks Yahshua to show them the Father,

“Lord, show us the Father, and it is sufficient for us.”

Philip asked if Yahshua would show them the Father and then they would be satisfied. Notice how Yahshua responds. Yahshua seems genuinely perplexed by Philip's request... and responds,

*Have I been with you so long, and yet you have not known Me, Philip?
He who has seen Me has seen the Father;
so how can you say, ‘Show us the Father’?*

The Apostle Philip walked with, talked with, ate with and witnessed the miracles of Yahshua every day... and yet Philip did not realize who Yahshua truly was!

Like many people today, Philip did not realize that Yahshua was The Almighty Father Himself manifested in flesh.

Have you, like Philip, walked and talked with Yahshua everyday and not yet realized who He truly is?

Trinitarianism: Think “three” say “one”

Because the Bible so clearly and so often tells us “the LORD is our God, the LORD is one”, those who believe in the Trinity will always emphatically say that there is one God.

But no matter how many times they say this, the concept in the minds of those who believe in the Trinity is of three divine beings. This amounts to thinking of The Almighty as three gods, regardless of any abstract metaphysical statements about their being “one in essence,” and regardless of the continually repeated statement that the three are one God.

In short, Trinitarians are actually thinking of three divine figures even though their lips are saying “one God.”

The practical reality is that the doctrine of the Trinity of Persons is a polytheistic doctrine—that even though its adherents have been trained by their denomination to say, “There is one God,” in reality they are picturing and worshipping three gods.

Does your pastor or church condone worshipping and praying to three entities? Do you?
